HIBERNIANS.

What They Have Been Doing
the Past Week—General
News Notes.

In Ireland there are 646 divisions of the order with an aggregate membership of 60,000 members.

Division 1 will meet in regular session next Tuesday evening and President Keenan desires a full attendance.

National Secretary Nugent reports that during the last two years 146 divisions have been added to the order in Ireland.

The eight divisions of the order in Indianapolis held a very successful outing and field day at Germania Park last Wednesday.

Division 2 is due for a big meeting next Friday night. President Ford wants as many present as possible to help map out a fall campaign.

Division 3 will meet Thursday night, the last meeting prior to the joint picnic, and President Sullivan is anxious for every member to be present.

The meeting of Division 4 on Monday, August 23, promises to be a hummer. All sorts of Hibernian stunts will be provided at the social session.

All the divisions of the order and the Ladies' Auxiliaries of Onondaga county, N. Y., are preparing for a mammoth outing and field day on August 25.

All the Hibernians and members of the Ladies' Auxiliaries are cordially invited to attend the C. K. of A. outing at Fontaine Ferry Park next Wednesday.

Capt. Tom Dolan's tug of war team continues to practice every Sunday on their Shippingport grounds. 'My team could pull the starch out of King Edward's shirt,' says Capt. Tom.

The Executive Committee from the Ladies' Auxiliary and Division 3 arranging for the joint picnic at Phoenix Hill Park, Tuesday, August 24, is holding meetings once or twice a week.

The various divisions of the order in Onondaga county, New York, which includes Syracuse, will hold a mass meeting at Pompey tomorrow. State President Brown will be one of the principal speakers.

The Milwaukee division has sent delegates to the unveiling of the Hibernian monument at Grosse Island tomorrow. Many States of the North and East will be represented by one or more delegates.

FALLS CITY LEAGUE.

Falls City Bowling League held its regular meeting at Haager's allys Tuesday night, and in the absence of President Frank Dacher, who is taking his vacation, Secretary Albert F. Martin called the meeting to order. Fred Schmidt was elected temporary Chairman. The Korncrackers, Ferncliffe, Lewis & Piazza, Boston and O'Neal & O'Neal teams were represented. Preliminary steps were taken to get other teams to take the remaining franchises. The members adjourned to meet again at Haager's on Tuesday night, August 17.

ASSUMES HIGHER DUTIES.

The many friends of James B. Smith will be gratified to learn that he has been elevated to the position of general manager of the insurance firm of Barbee & Castleman to succeed the late Arthur G. Langham. Mr. Smith has been with the company thirty-five years and thoroughly understands the business. Mr. Smith also succeeds Mr. Langham as general manager of the Shawnee Fire Insurance Company, of Topeka, Kas.

INITIATION DEFERRED.

Trinity Council's initiation, which was to have taken place on next Monday night, has been postponed until Monday night, August 30. President James B. Kelly requests all the members to be on hand as the exemplification of the ritual is both instructive and entertaining. The candidates, of whom there are a large number, are requested to be on hand promptly at 8 o'clock.

SURPRISED FRIENDS.

Mrs. Margaret R. Faucette and Harry F. Donnelly, well known Covington people, were united in matrimony by the Rev. Father Brosart, Vicar General, last Saturday evening. Immediately afterward Mr. and Mrs. Donnelly went to New York on a bridal trip. Mr. Donnelly is a member of the firm of Donnelly Bros., funeral directors. The marriage was a surprise to friends of both bride and groom.

NEW SUPERIOR CHOSEN.

Sister Bernadine has been chosen Superior of Presentation Academy to succeed Sister Eutrope, who was recently elected Mother Superior of Nazareth Academy. For several years past Sister Bernadine has been in charge of the senior class at Presentation, and her elevation is not a surprise. She is well known in Louisville Catholic educational circles.

WANTS TO VISIT IRELAND.

Those in touch with King Edward's desires say that he will probably visit Ireland this fall, but at any event not later than next year. It is said that during the early fall he may cruise on his yacht and put into several Irish ports. Rumor has it that he is desirous of spending a week in Dublin and that he will also visit Cork, Waterford and Belfast.

MAJOR BURKE'S TRIP.

Major Edward Burke, Night Chief of the Louisville police force, left this city Tuesday on his annual vacation. His itinerary includes Chicago, Detroit, New York and Rochester. The Major has relatives in the latter city.

DELMONT CLUB'S OUTING.

Tomorrow the Delmont Club will give a basket picnic at Spring Bank Park. Only members of the club and their families will be admitted. The club will supply liquid refreshments, but the members are supposed to bring their substantials in baskets. It will mean a day's outing and a social reunion for all the members. Music and dancing will be one of the big features.

ROBERT T. BURKE,
Elected Grand President of Y. M. I.

JUDGE LINCOLN HURT.

Judge Walter Lincoln, while visiting in Knox county last week, fell from a porch and sustained serious but not necessarily dangerous injuries. His right arm was broken in two places and two ribs were fractured. At last accounts he was resting as comfortably as possible under the circumstances, but will be necessarily absent for several weeks.

CONDITION CRITICAL.

Joseph Morgan, one of the oldest and most prosperous farmers in Southern Indiana, is suffering from paralysis at his home, near Henryville, Ind. Mr. Morgan is eighty-two years old, and fears for his recovery are entertained. His sister, Mrs. Mary Fitzgerald, of the Highlands, left last week to spend several weeks at his bedside.

COSTLY STRUCTURE.

St. Mary's Young Men's Association at Buffalo, N. Y., is in a very flourishing condition and proposes to erect a club house at a cost of $80,000. It will be a four-story structure equipped with all modern conveniences. This society of Catholic young men numbers 299 members.

WILL MAKE STRONG CANDIDATE.

James E. Burke, one of Jeffersonville's leading business men and most highly esteemed citizens, has announced his candidacy for the Democratic nomination for Mayor of that city. If nominated he will make a very strong candidate, since he has many friends in both parties.

CHOSE RELIGIOUS LIFE.

Miss Anna Hines, a popular young lady of St. Louis Bertrand's parish who went to St. Catherine's Convent, to enter the novitiate last year, has been given the name of Sister Mary Raymond. The novice is well and supremely content in her new environment.

GALLAGHER CLUB'S FETE.

The Gallagher Club, an adjunct of Unity Council, Y. M. I., of New Albany, will give a euchre and dance on the club house grounds, 805 East Main street, next Wednesday evening. The club invites its friends in Louisville and Jeffersonville to attend.

MAKES STRONG CANDIDATE.

Bernard A. Coll aspires to the Democratic nomination for Circuit Clerk of Clark county, Indiana. Mr. Coll is one of the most popular men in Jeffersonville, and served several terms as County Treasurer of Clark county.

WITH FIREMEN.

William Steele, engineer of the No. 8 fire company and one of the most competent men in the fire department, is able to be on duty again after a week's illness. Tom Callahan, Aide to Chief Tyson, is expected home from Michigan next week after a ten days' vacation.

HOME ON FURLOUGH.

Andrew Mahar, formerly Assistant Chief of the Jeffersonville fire department, and now a guard at the Indiana State Prison, Michigan City, is spending a ten days' furlough with friends and relatives in Jeffersonville.

IRELAND.

Record of the Most Important of the Recent Events Culled From Exchanges.

From the latest list published the city of Belfast has 72,806 voters, an increase of 102 over 1908.

Joseph Gillespie, a well known farmer in the County Armagh, died at his residence in Tynan.

John Brogan, of Clones, at the risk of his own life rescued James McMahon from drowning in Clonkeen Lake.

While temporarily insane, Patrick Kiely, twenty-seven years old, committed suicide at his home near Clonmel.

Mrs. Honor Quinn is dead at Ballaghaderreen at the age of 102 years. She could read, knit and sew without the aid of spectacles.

The death of the Very Rev. Father Smollen, dean of the diocese of Clogher, occurred at Enniskillen. His demise is generally regretted.

Michael Loftus, seventy-two years old and one of the oldest pensioners, committed suicide at his home in Sligo while temporarily insane.

The dead body of Edward Archer, a well known young man of Dublin, was found floating off Bray Head. He was twenty-nine years old and married.

Rev. Father James W. Campbell, a son of J. H. Campbell, Town Clerk of Queensdown, was one of fifty priests recently ordained in the Church of St. Sulpice, Paris.

At the opening of the Derry summer assizes the presiding Judge congratulated the grand jury on the fact that the county was in its normal state of peace and quietness.

The Dingle School of Irish, in the County Sligo, has opened its second year, and among the students is Joseph Dunn, a professor at the Catholic University in Washington, D. C.

On September 30 an infirmary will be opened at Moyne Park, County Galway, for the reception of aged and infirm priests. It will be under the control of the Catholic Bishops of Ireland.

Richard Holahan, a well known Kilkenny farmer, while driving from Ballyogue to Callan was seized with heart failure and died almost immediately. He was thirty years old and highly respected.

At a convention held in the Town Hall, Sligo, Thomas Scanlan, a solicitor, was nominated for the Parliamentary vacancy in North Sligo, but it is claimed that P. J. Flynn will contest the nomination.

The remains of James Halpin, M. P., who died recently at Euston, England, were taken to Newmarket-on-Fergus, County Clare, for interment. Mr. Halpin represented East Clare in Parliament and was highly regarded.

At the opening of the Kilkenny assizes the Chief Justice thus addressed the grand jury: 'I rejoice to inform you that there is no business to go before you. We meet, gentlemen, to part. I congratulate and discharge you.'

At a meeting of the Birr Guardians in Queen's county Dr. Michael Quigley, of Clonsleece, was appointed medical officer for the Frankford Dispensary district to succeed Dr. Brown, who retires after nearly fifty years' service.

RIVERVIEW PARK.

This has been another great week at Riverview Park, and today promises to be a record breaker, because all the orphans in Louisville have been invited to be Col. Lum Simons' guests. It will not cost the little ones a cent to enter the gate, shoot the chutes or to enjoy any of the other devices. The free vaudeville and colored jubilee singers continue to attract crowds. Next week there will be the usual attractions with fireworks on Tuesday and Friday.

CORONATION ANNIVERSARY.

Monday was the fifth anniversary of the coronation of Pope Pius X. and it was celebrated with due pomp. Cardinal Merry del Val, the Papal Secretary of State, officiated at the pontifical mass. All the Cardinals then in Rome and members of the diplomatic corps and relatives of His Holiness were in attendance. During the day the Pope received many felicitous messages.

CAPT. HANLON'S CHANCE.

Recognizing the executive ability of Capt. Thomas Hanlon, the Democratic statesman of Floyd county, Ind., Hon. J. C. S. Blackburn, Governor of the Panama Zone, has offered him a nice position there. Capt. Hanlon and Gov. Blackburn are personal friends of long standing, and the offer is being favorably considered.

FIREMAN ON TRIP.

Fergus Kennedy, better known among his friends as Paddy Sox, a hardworking member of the No. 1 Hook and Ladder Company, has gone on an extended trip to Niagara Falls and other points of interest in the East.

ABLE REPRESENTATIVE.

Attorney Gerald Connelly represented the diocese of Covington at the Catholic Federation convention in Pittsburg this week. Mr. Connelly is a clever lawyer and the interests of Covington Catholics could not have been in abler hands.

VENERABLE ORATORS.

Dr. Thomas Addis Emmet, a grand-nephew of Robert Emmet, and Patrick Ford, editor of the Irish World, will be the principal speakers at the annual celebration of Chicago's United Irish societies at Brand's Park tomorrow. Dr. Emmet is now eighty-two years old.

TRANSFERRED.

The Rev. Father Francis Cassilly, S. J., has been transferred from the Jesuit University at Chicago to the faculty of St. Francis Xavier's College, Cincinnati. Father Cassilly is a native of Louisville, a son of Bernard Cassilly and a brother of Joseph, John and Lou Vincent Cassilly, of this city.
